FCSN Needs Your Support

In support of the FCSN (excerpts from FCSN newsletter articles)

"FCSN has given me hope. I can see signs of happiness for my son and my family. That is what makes FCSN a wonderful organization." May Leung (parent of child with special needs)

"We have witnessed the formation of FCSN. With time passing by, we are proud to be the seeds of sharing our resources after having received great help from others."

Carol & Tapin Hu (parents of child with special needs)

"The kids of FCSN have opened my eyes and heart to so much unconditional love, it's overwhelming. Thank you, FCSN, for giving me these life lessons and thank you to my friends who have joined me in this adventure."

Joyce Hu (volunteer, dance teacher)

"Our relationship between us as friends is what makes this organization so unique. We are a community of people, recognizing what each person's special needs are and then looking past them. We are friends."

Yumin Yeh (youth volunteer)
